

Data protection information for the event contract

1. In order to fulfil the contractually agreed business purposes, the personal data transmitted will also be collected, processed and used in accordance with the applicable statutory provisions. Personal data is all data that can be referred back to the client personally, e.g. name, address, e-mail address, payment details, ordered goods and services.
2. The controller pursuant to Art. 4 para. 7 GDPR [Datenschutzgrundverordnung - DSGVO] is Betriebsführungsgesellschaft Hanau mbH, Schlossplatz 1, D-63450 Hanau.
3. Pursuant to Art. 6 para. 1 f) of the GDPR, Betriebsführungsgesellschaft has a legitimate interest in storing the personal data transmitted to it, which were collected for the purpose of processing contracts, throughout the period of contract processing in order to have the contact details of the client available for future orders.
4. The client has the right to object (with reasons) at any time to the processing of personal data based on Article 6 (f) GDPR. There are no formal requirements for the objection; simply email it to us at info@cph-hanau.de or call 06181/2775-0. If the client objects, their personal data will no longer be processed, unless Betriebsführungsgesellschaft Hanau mbH can prove compelling reasons worthy of protection for processing that outweigh the interests, rights and freedoms of the client or the processing serves to assert, exercise or defend legal claims.
5. In addition, storage beyond the contract period for tax purposes is necessary to assert warranty claims and thus corresponds to the fulfilment of a legal obligation of Betriebsführungsgesellschaft Hanau mbH in accordance with Art. 6 (1) (c) GDPR.
6. The data subject has the right of access according to Art. 15 GDPR, the right to rectification according to Art. 16 GDPR, the right to erasure according to Art. 17 GDPR, the right to restriction of processing according to Art. 18 GDPR and the right to data portability according to Art. 20 GDPR. The restrictions according to Secs. 34 and 35 of the German Federal Data protection Act [Bundesdatenschutzgesetz - BDSG] - new version - apply to the right of access to information and the right to erasure.

7. The personal data of the client will not be shared with third parties; the only exception to this is sharing with third parties involved in the execution of the contract. The data will also be transmitted to third parties involved in the execution of the contract in accordance with the statutory provisions of the German Federal Data Protection Act [Bundesdatenschutzgesetz - BDSG-neu] and German Telemedia Act [Telemediengesetz - TMG] as well as the General Data Protection Regulation [Datenschutzgrundverordnung - DSGVO]. The scope of the transmission is limited to the minimum necessary for the execution of the contract.
8. The client has the option of having its saved data changed or erased at any time. The right of erasure the data stored about the client does not exist if their erasure is contrary to statutory or contractual retention periods, and if the data are necessary for the establishment, content or modification as well as the processing of the contractual relationship between the client and the intermediary and must be stored for these purposes.
